Follow SGSC policies. In the event a policy is unclear, contact the SGSC Executive to clarify the issue.
- Be reasonable in your demands on the young players' time, energy and enthusiasm. Remember that they have other interests and obligations including school. Conduct and organize training sessions in a manner that ensures academic success.
- Set clear expectations for players, parents & coaches prior to the start of the season
- Teach your players the Laws of the game and that they should never be broken.
- Remember that children play for the fun and enjoyment and that winning is only part of it. Never ridicule or yell at the children for making mistakes or losing a competition.
- The scheduling and length of practice times and competitions should take into consideration the maturity level of the children.
- Develop team respect for the ability of opponents as well as for the judgment of officials and opposing coaches. Never engage in harassment* or physical abuse of team members, game officials, or opposition.
- Remember that athletes need a coach they can respect. Be generous with praise, lead by example, and provide all feedback in a constructive, positive manner.
- Do not place the value of winning over the safety and welfare of players. Do not knowingly let an injured player take part in a game or practice session without the advice of a physician.
